TECH PLAYERS FETED

Football Team and Subs Enjoy Annual "Spread."

COACH C. W. HECOX HONORED

Veteran Trainer Complemented on All Sides for Efficient Service. Principal Myers' Speech Hit of the Evening-Miss Marion White Supervised All Arrangements.

Technical High School's football players demonstrated last night that they could be just as good losers as they have heretofore been winners. Twenty-six boys, comprising the entire 1910 squad, enjoyed a fine spread prepared by the girls of the senior class under the supervision of Miss Marion White, school superintendent of the domestic science department.

Dr. G. E. Myers, principal of the school, and other members of the faculty were the guests of honor, and Dr. Myers' address during the post-prandal exercises was the hit of the evening.

The principal called attention to the splendid efforts of Coach Clarence W. Hecox, who worked wonders with a lot of green material After paying Central High, the charmens, a gracious compli-ment, Dr. Maris struck a popular chord when he closed his speech by saying that he felt sure in 1911 he would have the pleasure of addressing a championship

Prof. Louis W. Mattern also delivered one of his characteristic speeches, and was cheered to the echo, Among the other speakers were Prof. J. A. Chamberlin, Prof. Bryan W. Morse, Coach Clar-ence Hecox, Messrs. Nelson, McKernan, Claffin, Woodard, Capt. Tew, Manager Bullough, and William Pact.

Best Feed in History. The boys voted this "feed" the very best ever in the history of the school, and Miss White was congratulated on all hands. Among the women teachers who assisted Miss White were the Misses Deal, Baker, Birtwell, Baldwin, Dennis,

The senior class girls who acted in the capacity as waitresses and helped make the evening a most enjoyable one were the Misses Della Clark, Gertrude Browne Weyrich, Clara Corning, Ruth

Members of the football team and substitutes present were: Morris, Sinclair, Gill, Capt. Tew, Knight, Holbrook, Swegler, Eichendorf, Heine, Thrall, Bullough, Manager Davis, Charlton, Grigsby, Henry, Dulin, Stranahan, Fitzpatrick, White, Crowe, Howard, Peake, Michael, Park, McCarthy, and Mansey.

Honors for Coach Hecox.

Every speaker during the evening re ferred to Coach Hecox in the most complimentary terms, and Mr. Hecox is deserving of all the good things. Heretofore he has been given little credit for turning out Tech's championship football teams, because of the wealth of tified of his son's death, it is believed. heavy material, it being claimed that Tech's weight alone won most of their battles. Victorious Pace.

Frank J. Marshall, the American chess ! champion, closed his engagement at the Washington Chess and Whist Club with two brilliant performances yesterday. In the afternoon he played a consultation game with Rear Admiral B. J. Cromwell, retired, against a quartet of the club's stars and won. In the evening he won twelve contests, lost one, and tied one. The consultation game developed some novel features, and the new Rice gambit ployment by the wealthy fath was employed. Mr. Marshall displayed M. E. Smith, of New York. its highest powers in his play and dem enstrated its logic. Arrayed against him were Messrs. Wimsatt, Hodges, Burk-holder, Smith, and Michelson, the latter being Mr. Marshall's manager. They resigned the game after forty moves.

In the evening the champlon lost one game to L. Walker, drew his game with Wimsatt, and one checker game with Mondell, and won against Miller, Stephenson, Jackson, Neagle (Prussian) Chase, Burkholder, De Leon, Knapp, Connor, and Hamilton. The games were played on the rotation system, with Michelson assisting Marshall. Arrangements were concluded by which

Mr. Marshall will play an extended engagement at the Metropolitan Club, beginning to-day.
